

The artist: SHARON ROSE Q. DADANG is a self-taught artist. Her works are inspired by the Okir art of Cotabato, on the island of Mindanao in southern Philippines. She is currently working for the Cashew Tree House creating visual aids for preschool children of scavenger families in Payatas where Metro Manila dumps its garbage. She is also coordinator and producer for an alternative cultural café. Recipient of the European Fine Arts Merit Award from Silliman University (1992), Sharon works as a volunteer artist for Amnesty International.

Title: Suckling Horus

Isis is the mother of Horus and defended him on many occasions, particularly against snakes and scorpions.
